Students entering 6th Grade in September 2012

Teacher: Mrs. Congro

Due Date: The First Week of School

Students entering Middle School definitely know the types of books they like and dislike. This summer, let the joy of reading take your child on great adventures. It is very important for students to keep the momentum of reading over the summer months. Students MUST read at least three books, but are highly encouraged to read more. The choice of books MUST be within the student's reading range either from the suggested reading list below or any books of the student's choice. Students need to complete the Look Who's on Facebook assignment attached on the main character from their favorite book. Always remember, a good book is so hard to put down. Happy Reading!
