Students entering 5th Grade in September 2012

Teacher: Mrs. Congro

Due Date: The First Week of School

This summer, let the joy of reading take your child on great adventures. It is very important for students to keep the momentum of reading over the summer months. Students MUST read at least three books, but are highly encouraged to read more. The choice of books MUST be within the student's reading range either from the suggested reading list below or any books of the student's choice. Students need to complete the Character Chart assignment attached on the main character from their favorite book. There is nothing like sitting by a pool or at the beach and reading a great story. Happy Reading!
